

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Child Survey

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Please circle True (T) or False (F) for each statement.

	True	False
1. My parent(s) is/are easy to get along with.	A	B
2. My parent(s) is/are receptive to criticism.	A	B
3. For the most part, my parent(s) like to talk to me.	A	B
4. We almost never seem to agree.	A	B
5. My parent(s) usually listen to what I tell them.	A	B
6. At least three times a week, we get angry at each other.	A	B
7. My parent(s) say that I have no consideration of their feelings.	A	B
8. My parent(s) and I compromise during arguments.	A	B
9. The talks we have are frustrating.	A	B
10. My parent(s) is/are often seems angry at me.	A	B
11. My parent(s) act impatient when I talk.	A	B
12. In general, I don't think we get along very well.	A	B
13. My parent(s) almost never understands my side of an argument.	A	B
14. My parent(s) and I have big arguments about little things.	A	B
15. My parent(s) is/are defensive when I talk to them.	A	B
16. My parent(s) think my opinions don't count.	A	B
17. We argue a lot about rules.	A	B
18. My parent(s) tell me that they think I am unfair.	A	B

Administrative use only:

Score _____

Scorer Name _____

Program Name _____

Program start date _____

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Child Survey Scoring Instrument

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Please circle True (T) or False (F) for each statement.

	True	False
1. My parent(s) is/are easy to get along with.	A	B
Score	0	1
2. My parent(s) is/are receptive to criticism.	A	B
Score	0	1
3. For the most part, my parent(s) like to talk to me.	A	B
Score	0	1
4. We almost never seem to agree.	A	B
Score	0	1
5. My parent(s) usually listen to what I tell them.	A	B
Score	0	1
6. At least three times a week, we get angry at each other.	A	B
Score	1	0
7. My parent(s) say that I have no consideration of their feelings.	A	B
Score	1	0
8. My parent(s) and I compromise during arguments.	A	B
Score	0	1
9. The talks we have are frustrating.	A	B
Score	1	0
10. My parent(s) is/are often seems angry at me.	A	B
Score	1	0
11. My parent(s) act impatient when I talk.	A	B
Score	1	0
12. In general, I don't think we get along very well.	A	B
Score	1	0
13. My parent(s) almost never understands my side of an argument.	A	B
Score	1	0
14. My parent(s) and I have big arguments about little things.	A	B
Score	1	0
15. My parent(s) is/are defensive when I talk to them.	A	B
Score	1	0

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Child Survey Scoring Instrument (Cont'd)

16. My parent(s) think my opinions don't count.	A	B
Score	1	0
17. We argue a lot about rules.	A	B
Score	1	0
18. My parent(s) tell me that they think I am unfair.	A	B
Score	1	0

Scoring:

Points values are assigned as indicated above. A total is derived by summing the scores for all items for the TRUE responses. A lower score means that the child gets along with the parent. A higher score means that there is child-parent conflict.

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Parent Survey

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Please circle True (T) or False (F) for each statement.

	True	False
1. My child is easy to get along with.	A	B
2. My child is well behaved in our discussions.	A	B
3. My child is receptive to criticism.	A	B
4. For the most part, my child likes to talk to me.	A	B
5. We almost never seem to agree.	A	B
6. My child usually listens to what I tell him or her.	A	B
7. At least three times a week, we get angry at each other.	A	B
8. My child says that I have no consideration of his or her feelings.	A	B
9. My child and I compromise during arguments.	A	B
10. My child often doesn't do what I ask.	A	B
11. The talks we have are frustrating.	A	B
12. My child often seems angry at me.	A	B
13. My child acts impatient when I talk.	A	B
14. In general, I don't think we get along very well.	A	B
15. My child almost never understands my side of an argument.	A	B
16. My child and I have big arguments about little things.	A	B
17. My child is defensive when I talk to him or her.	A	B
18. My child thinks my opinions don't count.	A	B
19. We argue a lot about rules.	A	B
20. My child tells me he or she thinks I am unfair.	A	B

Administrative use only:

Score _____

Scorer Name _____

Program Name _____

Program start date _____

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Parent Survey Scoring Instrument

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Please circle True (T) or False (F) for each statement.

	True	False
1. My child is easy to get along with.	A	B
Score	0	1
2. My child is well behaved in our discussions.	A	B
Score	0	1
3. My child is receptive to criticism.	A	B
Score	0	1
4. For the most part, my child likes to talk to me.	A	B
Score	0	1
5. We almost never seem to agree.	A	B
Score	0	1
6. My child usually listens to what I tell him or her.	A	B
Score	0	1
7. At least three times a week, we get angry at each other.	A	B
Score	1	0
8. My child says that I have no consideration of his or her feelings.	A	B
Score	1	0
9. My child and I compromise during arguments.	A	B
Score	1	0
10. My child often doesn't do what I ask.	A	B
Score	1	0
11. The talks we have are frustrating.	A	B
Score	1	0
12. My child often seems angry at me.	A	B
Score	1	0
13. My child acts impatient when I talk.	A	B
Score	1	0
14. In general, I don't think we get along very well.	A	B
Score	1	0
15. My child almost never understands my side of an argument.	A	B
Score	1	0

Parent/Child Social Competencies – Parent Survey Scoring Instrument (Cont'd)

16. My child and I have big arguments about little things.	A	B
Score	1	0
17. My child is defensive when I talk to him or her.	A	B
Score	1	0
18. My child thinks my opinions don't count.	A	B
Score	1	0
19. We argue a lot about rules.	A	B
Score	1	0
20. My child tells me he or she thinks I am unfair.	A	B
Score	1	0

Scoring:

Points values are assigned as indicated above. A total is derived by summing the scores for all items for the TRUE responses. A lower score means that the parent gets along with the child. A higher score means that there is parent-child conflict.